

BONE STORIES - ACTIVITY 4

Object cards to complete One bone, many lives

Templates to be completed only with a corpus whose notices, relevance and rights have been validated.

TYPE Object cards	AUDIENCE Groups
USAGE Cutting or projection	VERSION Pilot 1.0

Objects A to E to complete - no archaeological functions or images are provided in this version.

Instructions for use for adults

- 1 Replace the neutral zone with a validated photograph or present the object in a window.
- 2 Complete only the data visible at the start of the survey.
- 3 Keep provenance, dating, context and references for the verification phase.
- 4 Never include the supposed function in the title of the card.

Objects A and B

Object A

TO COMPLETE

Validated image or object to be integrated by the institution.

Visible material:

orientation:

Dimensions:

view:

Starting question:

Object B

TO COMPLETE

Validated image or object to be integrated by the institution.

Visible material:

orientation:

Dimensions:

view:

Starting question:

Objects C and D

Object C

TO COMPLETE

Validated image or object to be integrated by the institution.

Visible material:

Dimensions:

orientation:

view:

Starting question: _____

Object D

TO COMPLETE

Validated image or object to be integrated by the institution.

Visible material:

Dimensions:

orientation:

view:

Starting question: _____

Object E

Object E

TO COMPLETE

Validated image or object to be integrated by the institution.

Visible material:Dimensions:*orientation:*view:*Starting question: _____

Context card to reveal

Origin:Institution/inventory:*Dating:*Context of discovery:*Analyzes/comparisons:*Scientific source:*Rights and credit of the image: _____

Traceability : Activity page, updates and online credits.